

Operation Principles

1. Users connect onto Offshore Structured Notes Market Observation Post System through Internet using their PCs.
2. The System provides the statistical data on structured products reviewed and approved by the Central Bank, the competent authorities and trade associations and related query services.
3. Once information is entered onto the reporting platform, system will automatically direct to another platform for posting after review by supervisor.
4. The System offers both single and multiple data entries and uploading.